Over 3700 titles always in stock - including their latest fortnightly releases

Alan Godfrey maps are highly detailed, mostly taken from the 1/2500 plans and reprinted at about 14 inches to the mile. They cover towns in great detail, showing individual houses, railway tracks, factories, churches, mills, canals, tramways and even dockside cranes, fountains, signal posts, pathways, sheds, wells, etc.. Each map includes historical notes on the area concerned.

Alan Godfrey also publishes a series of smaller scale Inch to the Mile maps covering the whole of England & Wales and part of Northern Ireland, plus an increasing range of large-scale maps taken from the OS five-foot plans. All available to purchase from Family History Books.
